Tearing down the walls

And I'm tearing down the walls, so I can climb my sky and I'm tearing down the walls, I know the reason why

Yes I wanna be a man who has much power, wh ohas his own van and I wanna do my best for myself and for the goddamned rest once I've learned it in the school but now I'm free, I don't care 'bout their rules 'cause I think I'm getting up I'm on my way from no one to stop

My heaven is so close to feel leave earth's disaster I'm taken by a reel Political rampage runs people are cryin', soldiers weaponed with their guns don't know we try our best from the rich man to the poor last so I think I'm getting up I'm on my way from no one to stop

And I'm tearing down the walls, so I can climb my sky
and I'm tearing down the walls, I know the reason why
