The edge of the world

Here is a song just for you that tells you what I would do if I had a chance to get so fucking close to you 'cause all my tries were in vain and I missed my only aim as I had no chance to get so close to you and now I'm standing in the cold don't know what's coming up to me
I see a light which shines so bright
I feel my friends who are gone forever this is the day when I'm falling off
the edge of the world

my life is drifting away no further walk through my day when I stick my mouth to the top of a loaded gun my trembling fingers await to blow away my lovely thoughts well the love of my life is now gone

don't know what's coming up to me
I see a light which shines so bright
I feel my friends who are gone forever
the edge of the world
