Every night before I fall asleep
I say goodnight to the one I'll meet
Knowing one day fate will find you
And lead us home to solitude
The wind blows, the time grows

This is to my future lover wherever you may be
Are you hiding in the moonlight
The same cast over me
This is to my future lover
When will we meet
But it can't be that easy
Won't you come to me

I wake and blow a kiss into the wind
I hope it grows wings and lands under your skin
We'll bruise each other badly
Feel pain deep in our hearts
But soul mates are forever and were never gonna fall apart
The wind blows? the time still grows

Chorus

Give me a sign
I know you're mine
Come be my saving grace
Give me a sign, give me a sign
I know your mine
Come be my saving grace

Chorus

But it can't be that easy
Dream a dream of me
