Lyin' here, I find safety in your stare.
All my sins disappear.
And I'm ready now, my eyes are finally clear.
Love me please, now that I am here.

Chorus:

With my head hung down, tears on my face,
I am here right now, delivered to this place.
I have followed love, a love I never knew.
Now I've been delivered to you.

I made mistakes. I've drifted away.
So much time I wasted.
All alone, I know I've needed more
Now here I am, kneeling outside Your door.

(Chorus)

I've spent my whole life searching.
I've been so lost, alone.
But now that I'm next to you,
I've finally found my home

With my head hung down, tears on my face.
I am here right now delivered to this place.
I have followed love, a love I never knew

I've been delivered. (ahh)
I've been delivered. (ahh)
I've been delivered. (ahh)
I've been delivered.
