You've put in all these years and all this time
Given up so much of your life, believing this can work
You kept the hope, worked for growth
And just when things start looking low, you're ready to bow out
Come up with a better excuse for backing down
I don't want to hear that you, you're pullin' out
Everything will be alright, just give it time
Is this what you really want

Chorus:

If you think about it you'll realize it ain't worth
Giving up, up on us
Just because it's getting rough
If you think it over
And outweigh all the bad with the good
Like you should
You'll see that this ain't worth giving up

With everything that we've worked so hard for You'd be a fool to through it all away
I can't understand how, suddenly, things can be totally rearranged
Come up with a better excuse for backing down
I don't want to hear that you, you're pullin' out
Everything will be alright, just give it time
Is this what you really want

Chorus:

If you think about it you'll realize it ain't worth
Giving up, up on us
Just because it's getting rough
If you think it over
And outweigh all the bad with the good
Like you should
You'll see that this ain't worth giving up
