Verse:1

Here comes another day just like the one before
If I'm gonna keep living my life this way
I'll be face down on the floor
Cause I don't wanna see my picture there
Hanging from the wall of shame
I gotta get up before my mind erupts
One day this worlds gonna know my name

Chorus:

Just like a daydream
It feels so amazing
Don't wake me up
Running away from a wasteland
Just to save my heart
It breaks enough
Stand up and fight for yourself son
No ones ever gonna stand up for you

Verse 2:

I've got no plan of action
Just a list of things I need
To get that satisfaction
It feels so far from me
I can walk this line
Explore decline until I'm gone
But I am meant for something more
This is not where I belong
