Hey baby, let me take you to paradise
Follow me to the rainbow's end

Hey, boy, what'cha say? Oh, why can't you look my way?
When will you realize you and me are paradise?
Hey, boy, can't you see? Handsome, you are meant for me
Sent from above, this crazy thing called love

How can I live in this situation?
I wish that you were just imagination?

Red, yellow, green and blue, the rainbow leads to you
Those are the colors, made for lovers
And if you want me too, you know I'll wait for you
The sun will shine, and I will make you mine

Hey boy, take my hand, let's fly to wonderland
Cause you're my fantasy, the only one for me
Hey, boy, now's the time, for me to make you mine
Sent from above, this crazy thing called love

How can I live in this situation?
I wish that you were just imagination?

Red, yellow, green and blue, the rainbow leads to you
Those are the colors, made for lovers
And if you want me too, you know I'll wait for you
The sun will shine, and I will make you mine

Oh baby, I will go with you all the way
To the rainbow's end
Together we'll follow the colors to paradise, my friend

Red, yellow, green and blue, the rainbow leads to you
Those are the colors, made for lovers
And if you want me too, you know I'll wait for you
The sun will shine, and I will make you...

Red, yellow, green and blue, the rainbow leads to you

Those are the colors, made for lovers
And if you want me too, you know I'll wait for you
The sun will shine, and I will make you mine
