When I dreamed of all the lonely places, we've never been that far
We hide it just behind bars Fought, embraced, didn't give a toss bout what they thought of us
We lived our lives at the stars

And in those hours of darkness you were standing next to me
Guess that made it worth while

Struggle for eternal fate, we always were on time
The thing to pack were our smiles

And I know we did intend to Scream and make our way right out of here
No locks could hold us here Cause crying doesn't help and the light just made us feel
