(musica: V. Nocenzi / testo: G. Amato) Called you on the telephone, but you were never there waited for you, thought about you...
Gave it all another try, thought a little more the time has come for me to know what's behind that door
I've been dreamin' about what we used to be,
and really don't know how to face this haunting memory
when we touched our eyes, melodies poured in, melodies poured in,
like rain from the sky.
When we touched our eyes,
melodies poured in, melodies poured in,
Like rain from the sky. like rain from the sky.
Feelin' just a little tired, I read my mind once more, if you feel it's time to go, my love is always yours
when we touched our eyes,
melodies poured in, melodies poured in,
like rain from the sky.
When we touched our eyes,
melodies poured in, melodies poured in,
like rain from the sky. Like rain from the sky.
When we touched our eyes,
melodies poured in, melodies poured in,
like rain from the sky.
When we touched our eyes,
melodies poured in, melodies poured in,
like rain from the sky...
