Your brain is an ever changing kaleidoscope of moods and colors

We walk in the park but it's melting in the dark
All of a sudden your mood changes
And your face looks like a cake left out in the rain
Is your name Macarthur Parker? Or is it Reba?

Detour thru your mind
Super saver to your mind

We seem to float by yesterday's child the new you
The land time forgot and a horse with no mane
As we go further into the gloom
We chance upon a large orange room
A key pops out of your nose, we open the door
And all of a sudden we realise that we are no more

From ear to ear from here to now
I hear another galaxy spinning around

Who am I? Where am I going?
How much will it cost?

A flash of blinding light and we're in
An elegantly appointed doctor's office
It seems that doctor Aron butterfly wants
To dip us in plaster and use us for bookends
We say to the doctore, "No. please no!"
And then we get the doctor's bill what a shock
$16,000! and all he wanted to do was dip us in plaster

Detour thru your mind
Super saver to your mind

Who am I? Where have I been?
Where am I going? How much will it cost?
Do I need any luggage? Can I bring my mother?

Detour thru your mind
Super saver to your mind

What do you mean 10$

I need to leave my past behind
I need to leave my behind in the past
