Heroes fallin' to the ground
Like Hell's magnet pulls me down
On my knees, I try to please his eyes
His idol eyes

Jerking motions won't revive him
Mouth to mouth resuscitation
Oh, I would lie down beside him
And idolize

Motor, motor, a broken hearted
Rusted, rotted, fallin' apart
A lock of hair, a belt he wore
It's not enough, I need more

God give me his soul
I said, "God give me his soul"

Heroes fallin' to the ground
Like Hell's magnet pulls me down
On my knees, I try to please his eyes
His idol eyes

I hero worship
He deserves it
And what's of it

I want more of [Incomprehensible]
I need more
I need more
