Flashes in the sky
Exploding like a nebula
Well, it all seems so simple
And then it's pounding in your brain

Stokin' and strokin'
I'm hypnotized
We're in deep as the night
When bodies collide

I never felt this way before
And it feels so strange
Who knows where love goes?
Who knows when it wraps around your brain?

Too much to think about
Stokin' and a strokin'
Just too much to think about
Heat up the night
Just too much to think about tonight
Tonight when bodies collide

Too much to think about
Stokin' and a strokin'
Just too much to think about
Heat up the night
Just too much to think about tonight
Tonight when bodies collide

Lightning clash, crash across your mind
So intense no sense but feeling fine
Movin' in closer, ridin' the tide
We're in deep as the night
When bodies collide

I never felt this way before
And it feels so strange
Who knows where love goes?
Who knows when it wraps around your brain?

Too much to think about
Stokin' and a strokin'

Just too much to think about
Heat up the night
Just too much to think about tonight
Tonight when bodies collide

Too much to think about
Stokin' and a strokin'
Just too much to think about
Heat up the night
Just too much to think about tonight
Tonight when bodies collide

I can see so many crazy figures in my dreams
Oh, my goodness
It's just too much to think about

Too much to think about
Just too much to think about
Just too much to think about
Stokin' and a strokin'
Just too much to think about
Heat up the night
Just too much to think about tonight
Tonight when bodies collide
