[Chorus]

You done fell in love wit a thug You in trouble baby Cause you done fell in love wit a thug And it ain't a damn thing a damn thing you can do about it

[Verse 1: Camoflaug]

Lord knows its been hard for boo you stood by a nigga like glue, its true that I done fucked up plenty of times and you forgave my and thats why I'm here for you baby And when I went to jail you was there phone calls and visits T-shirts and underwear little mama you did it when I came home it was the same song out on the corner all night still tryna get my hustle on you hated but you still waited up til I made in questioning where the hell I been and then came the love makin' and the tounge kissing on a mission to hit that ass in every position wishin for peace, love, and happiness are you happy (yes) well lay your tired head on my chest get you some rest everything gone by ain't what what I know you fell like you hooked on drugs (cuz)

[Chorus]

[Verse 2: Camoflaug]

I see you blowing up my phone sayin make it home you all alone
give me about an hour uh ohh I cought the dail tone another agruement with me and my boo I spend more times in the streets then I do wit you but hey I gotta get it how I live baby

I tryna give you nice things and pay these bills baby shit, your homegirl said she seem me at the club fuckin wit some chicken head oh you gone follow her up damn what ever happened to that thing called trust what ever happened to that thing called us guess what, we gotta make this thing work and shit I don't even gotta tell you what you did

[Chorus]

[Verse 3]

Whoa now, slowdown little ma whats your problem I hope that I can try to help you solve them Boo listen I know you upset I understand (you don't want a walk-time man) but shit I'm out her everyday tryna make a better way for us hey this life I'm livin' its so dangerous ok you think I'm chasing bitches but I'm out here chasing riches when I'm wit my niggaz you figure I'm in some bitches bitches down, oh you wanna run back to your mama don't you think she getting tired of this drama Cause you and I both know whats up you gone be right back where you was Cause

[Chorus]
