Now lay
Down I look to the sky
So became to pray
For my last darkest night
I started to learn
Now I'm crying
Only pages burn
Of my dream's book hid

The Will I had ain't
(all is still the same)
Ain't strong enough
(start to learn)
The Time we had ain't
(all is still the same)
Control my heart
And my world is done!
Can't you see
This hate apart
Can't you see
My broken heart
Now I'll try
To bring new life
My own desire
To break those lies

The Will I had ain't
(all is still the same)
Ain't strong enough
(start to learn)
The Time we had ain't
(all is still the same)
Control my heart
And my world is done!
