Pushed around, up and down, we started to lose our way

Wanting one thing, then made to do another

Oh! Lord there's gotta be a better way

We don't need nobody to tell us what we want

Cause now we know, yes we know

Miles and miles, always on the go

We played to all the waiting ears

Did our trip the best way we knew how, and conquered all our fears

We don't need nobody to tell us what we want

Cause now we know, yes we know

People thought we were too young to know our minds

Thought they knew, think they know!

But now we're gonna show them the best way we know how

So here we go, here we go
