"Watching The Sky"

Watching the sky and the moon we lay under Miles and miles between us
It makes me wonder
Are you watching the sky, too

You fly in circles around the dark side of your soul While I'm flying in this airplane with no sense of control
The black sky, it wraps around us Like skin it keeps us whole
And are you watching the sky, too

Big hotel island in a small town
They send me flowers for my room
But tonight I'll drink their wine Tonight I'm gonna have a good time

Hanging on the telephone as if it were my friend Craving some of that sweetness on the other end
I'll lay under the stars tonight instead of sleep , pretend that you are watching the sky, too Baby, are you watching the sky ?
