(Voz: Lidia Guevara)

I heard your voice in the lonely land
And I close my mind I can see the Light

How many lies do I need to see?

Before my heart could run away?

Yeah, I want to know...

(Estribillo)

Dancing in the shadows of the night I've been dreaming in the shiny walk of

Life

I am moving with the silence of my mind

Where the answers and the feelings are all right

I walk so fast with my open wings

And I can't return, now I see my soul I don't believe in a perfect love

I'm looking for a real one

Yeah, I want to know...

(Estribillo)

Dancing in the shadows of the night I've been dreaming in the shiny walk of

Life

I am moving with the silence of my mind

Where the answers and the feelings are all right

(Estribillo 2)

I've been dreaming with the moon every night

In the evening I walk alone in wonderland

I'm just walking through my heart and my soul

And the real life suddenly turns around
