"Lay Yourself Down"

Darlin' don't you lay yourself down
We live in a fable
We live in a make-believe town
All cardboard and dust
It's not so important

Darlin' there are tears in your eyes
You're weakened and wearied
You feel compromised
And though they long to carry
My arms can only surround

Don't you lay yourself down

Even if the battle is won
The war is not over
It's only begun
If there's one still standing
One still standing his ground
Don't you lay yourself down
Don't you lay yourself down

Baby, be strong for me, please

Even if the battle is won
The war is not over
It's only begun
If there's one still standing
One still standing his ground

Don't you lay yourself down
Don't you lay yourself down
Don't you lay yourself down
