Spending a most unusual night in Prague with a one-eyed dog

And a cat controlled by evil spirits - It scared us all to death

Viktor was such a friendly monster, he knew Gorilla ruled

Mouthguard from Brisbane, nice to meet you
I hope you liked your tour

Someday, I've got to awake

And all that remains is the pictures I take, inside
I'll grow old with these memories

Someday it all goes away

If nobody's out there, I don't wanna play, I know
I'll grow old with these memories from the underground

Teaching a most unusual crowd how punk rock's being done

Squat types, hell's angels and immigrants, plus Lisa and her dog

C.S.O.A. means social center, and crusties smell like hell

No vegan food, we want some pizza
And we've learnt our lesson well
