Did you know I'd save your life tonight
When you thought you'd never see daylight again?
Funny how the right place, the right time, the right words
Can right so much hurt
And I know your heart's been hurting

Just call out my name
And I will come running
Just call out my name
I'm listening, I'm waiting

Everyone gets shaky sometimes
But let's not get hasty,
Let's not get crazy
I'll do anything, just say 'save me'

I was born to be there for
The broken hearted
The forgotten

Just call out my name
And I will come running
Just call out my name
I'm listening, I'm waiting

Just call out my name
I'm never too far away
My love never strays
There is nothing you can ever do
Nothing you can ever say
Nothing in this world
That is keeping me away

Just call out my name
And I will come running
Just call out my name
I'm listening, I'm waiting

Just call out my name
I'm listening, I'm waiting
