

Baphomet "Identified"

You're home in the public scene
Your face on every screen
Tell the people what they want to hear
Especially what we don't need

I see the lies upon your face
You never thought of no disgrace
Why can't the people ever see
That you're the parasite and we're your feed

Identified - go on with the life that you're living
Your show soon will be over
You are identified

Go and sell the lies that you live
We will never keep you running out of this place
If you think you can stay on your way
Nobody gives a doubt of what you say

Nobody pays your bills
Hide and seek at the tunnels end
The higher they get the harder they fall

Don't believe in humanity
Your decisions we don't care
Don't count on our stupidity
Solution is on it's way

I see the lies upon your face
You never thought of no disgrace
Why can't the people ever see
That you're the parasite and we're your feed

Identified - go on with the life that you're living
Your show soon will be over
You are identified
