Through deviant eyes do I see
Lives of pain and misery
Break free from the norm
See through the deceit

Blinded throughout life
Incomprehensible strife
Childhood halvete
Use your eyes to see

Seeing inly what you're told
Devlate them your scold
Relieve the mental strain
Blinded never agin

Take a look through the eyes of reality
And tell me what you see

Lies, anger, hatred
Are all my eyes can claim
Since the begining
Brought in a world of pain

Blood from confusion
Spilled day by day
As long as we live our lives
And dwell in tiranyc reign

I can't wait to break free
From the pain that's inside of me
A mental catacomb I'll not descend
So I'll struggle until the end

Lies, pain, desease, reign,
Strive, kill, mankind

I can't wait to break free
From the pain that's inside of me
A mental catacomb I'll not descend
So I'll struggle until the end
