Soldier, victim of demise
What do you expect to see?
You kill only the innocent
War and pain is all you feel

Terror coming from nowhere now
Life is never worth a dime
Fear and anger guide you on your way
And you never find a place to hide... no

Time has come
For you to think again
Visions of immortals will they guide you
On your way
Time has come
Reality absurd
I can't find no sense for you today

Do you think you will survive all of this
Did you ever think you could die
You can keep on going like this
On this will you will die
This fortune can you ever rest
Sounds scary for me
Death is real come understand
What it means to me... no

Can you regret what you've done to me
I can release myself and lead you to infinity

Soldier, victim of demise
What do you expect to see?
You kill only the innocent
War and pain is all you feel
Terror rising from nowhere now
Life is never worth a dime
Fear and anger guide you on your way
And you never find a place to hide
For... your... time... has... come
