The winters told me everything,
But I am on my way.
I don't need now my diamond rings,
I leave the world today.
But you can tell a thousands lies,
You think that would stay,
'Cause I am not a fool for you, I leave the world today.

Pum-pum-pum-pump it up!

And I, I leave the world, I leave the world today,
'Cause I, I leave the world, I leave the world today.

And I, I leave the world, I leave the world today,
'Cause I, I leave the world, I leave the world today.

Pum-pum-pump it up!

Pum-pum-pum-pump it up!

Pump it up!

The morning comes and I have left,
'Cause I am on my way,
I don't believe in words like that,
I leave the world today.

No matter how you tried to be, no matter what you say,
But I am not a fool for you, I leave the world today.

And I, I leave the world, I leave the world today,
'Cause I, I leave the world, I leave the world today.

And I, I leave the world, I leave the world today,
'Cause I, I leave the world, I leave the world today.

Pum-pum-pum-pump it up!
