together in love again by Babe
Together, together, together, together in love again
Forever, forever, forever, forever with you
And let's forget the past as
Quick as we can, we're
Together, together, together, together in love again

Had such a hard time boy then, I met you
You were so kind and understanding
But your heart was wounded, just like mine
Searching for a new love, warm and true

Together, together, together, together in love again
Forever, forever, forever, forever with you
And let's forget the past as
Quick as we can, we're
Together, together, together, together in love again

You got your own love story, don't wanna know
Can read the sadness in your eyes
And I can feel, you've been hurt, like me
I never ever let you go

Together, together, together, together in love again
Forever, forever, forever, forever with you
And let's forget the past as
Quick as we can, we're
Together, together, together, together in love again

Never thought it would happen again
But I feel so great
In your arms I forget all the pain
And it seems, so far away
