Three o'clock a.m. I haven't slept at all
Watching candy-color neon on the wall
Traffic echo from the street
Like a present rapped in sheet
I waited long, not it's you call

CHORUS

I wanna kiss the sky
Just like a satellite
I wanna sail among the stars
And if you share my dream
Come fly with me
Over Jupiter and Mars

At the speed of light
Into the cosmic night
I wanna ride around the sun
Cause from the very start I give my heart
I could never look back down
Kisses in the sky
I could never look down

Drowning slowly in a big and empty bag
How I wish I was some other place instead
And, since you can't make up you're mind
You change the story all the time
It's like I'm falling from the edge

CHORUS

I wanna kiss the sky
Just like a satellite
I wanna sail among the stars
And if you share my dream
Come fly with me
Over Jupiter and Mars

At the speed of light
Into the cosmic night
I wanna ride around the sun
Cause from the very start I give my heart
I could never look back down

When it comes to devotion
I live under the notion
Love is heaven made for two
It's a spell that I'm under
And it's making me wonder
Do you feel the way I do

CHORUS

I wanna kiss the sky
Just like a satellite
I wanna sail among the stars
And if you share my dream
Come fly with me

At the speed of light
Into the cosmic night
Cause from the very start I give my heart
Kisses in the sky
