That look in your eyes - just says it all
You need to ask yourself why it is you love at all
'Cos you've found
Everywhere you look
You've just been wasting all the time it took
Won't you listen to me now
Say you'll listen to me now

I'll keep on telling you to Hold on - I know what's wrong
You've been so right - and I've been too long
Sayin'
Hold on - we've got to be strong

Nothing so right could ever be wrong
Won't you hold on, don't wait 'till tomorrow
Hold on to tonight
Hold on, don't wait 'till tomorrow
Hold on tonight

I think you know - yes I can tell
There's one thing you can be sure of and you know it well
You've got so much love inside
So much that you - you never can hide it
Won't you listen to me now
Say you listen to me now
