Let's take a ride in the country baby

Take a roll in the hay

Get some time off on Friday maybe

So we'll have more than just one day

Really get away

This may sound corny

But I want to watch the grass grow

We both get so romantic when we

Chill out and let that cool breeze blow

Come on baby let's go

Everyday in the city

I'm like a flower wilting on a sill

If you don't want to drive then I will

Come on, take a ride with me

Take a ride with me

How do the trees in the city make it

Without a true horizon

For me it's getting hard to fake it

I keep my chin up and my eyes on the prize

Now it's time for a ride

We can find someplace to lie down on the ground

Lose time and space and maybe

Feel the earth turning around

If we could only slow down

Everyday in the city?

Come on honey?blah blah blah
