Babel Fish - In Her Hands

My head is on her pillow
My heart is in her hands
I wonder what she dreams of
I wonder when it ends
The room is filled with demons
That I don't want to fight
I'm scared I'll never wake up
If I fall If I fall If I fall asleep tonight
There's so much unaccomplished
And so much time is lost
All I hear is her breathing
And the ticking of my watch
The room's lit by the sunrise
Deep orange beams of light
I'm scared I'll never wake up
If I fall If I fall If I fall asleep tonight
