Babel Fish - Some Day Soon

Some day something's bound to change
Now the dreams you once had seem deranged
Some day, there's no telling when,
Everything has to come to an end
You've messed it up so let it go
You're withered now so let it flow'
Cause you will bloom some day soon, some day soon
Somehow right turned into wrong
Small mistakes add up to a whole song
Some day all the simple truths
Will get lost hand in hand with your youth
You've messed it up so let it go
You're withered now so let it flow'
Cause you will bloom some day soon, some day soon
You've messed it up so let it go
Now don't look back, just let it flow You'll sing this tune some day soon, some day soon You've messed it up, you're not the first You're withered now, but you're not cursed
You've messed it up, but we all do
It's bound to change and so will you'
Cause you will bloom some day soon, some day soon
Some day something's bound to change
