ANNELIESE:

All my life I've always wanted
To have one day just for me
Nothing to do and for once nowhere I need to be
With no lessons, lords, or lunches
Or to-do list in the way
No one to say when to eat or read or leave or stay
That would be the day

ERIKA:

All my life I've always wanted
To have one day for myself
Not waking up with a pile of work on every shelf
With no hems in need of pressing
And no sleeves in disarray
No wedding gown with a thousand stitches to crochet
And no debt to pay

ERIKA:

What would it be like to be

PRINCESS ANNELIESE:

What would it be like to be

ERIKA:

Free

PRINCESS ANNELIESE:

Free

Free to try crazy things

ERIKA:

Free from endless IOU's

ANNELIESE:

Free to fly

ERIKA:

Free to sing

ANNELIESE:

And marry whom I choose

ANNELIESE:

You would think that I'm so lucky
That I have so many things
I'm realizing that every present comes with strings

ERIKA:

Though I know I have so little
My determination's strong
People will gather around the world to hear my song

WOMAN:

Can I come along?

ANNELIESE:

Now I fear I'll never be

ERIKA:

Soon I will forever be

BOTH:

Free

I close my eyes and feel myself fly a thousand miles away
I could take flight but would it be right
My conscience tells me stay

ANNELIESE:

I'll remain forever royal

ERIKA:

I'll repay my parent's debt

BOTH:

Duty means doing the things your heart may well regret

ANNELIESE:

But I'll never stop believing

ERIKA:

She can never stop my schemes

BOTH:

There's more to living than gloves and gowns and threads and seams
In my dreams
I'll be free
