Ariana:

love is for peasants which we're obviously not who needs a heart that's going to bleed its inconvenient and just makes you hot let mama tell you what you need not just any clown, someone with a crown and a happy life is guaranteed

Luciana: but mother, that can't be right

Ariana: did you say something?!

Luciana: all the books i've read all the poems always said that a heart is made to share joys not found in things such as necklaces and rings but in love that's always there that's the jewel beyond compare Ariana: you need to stop reading those books filling your head with thoughts now go lucianna, do something to make yourself prettier

Luciana: yes, mother

Ariana: the king's forgotten how he wrecked my family's life

when i was just a tiny tot just cause we tried to kill him and his wife a little treason not a LOT!

he took away our land which wasn't what we planned he put us on a pig farm and FORGOT!

i ran away and i must say i cleaned up good my past was nothing i'd discuss i found the oldest king that i could his heart condition was a plus sunday we were wed wednesday he was dead happily that put an end to us but when i heard that good king peter had a son i had a daughter right away put her in training so she'd be the one oh how i've waited for this day once they tie the knot i'll implement my plot then i'll use the king's head for croquet i'll take what should be mine and leave them with a swine and i'll have my way they're gonna pay
