"Overture to The Nutcracker"

Visit "Overture to The Nutcracker" on MotoLyrics.com

There's a kingdom just beyond a star, not to far you can go if you only dare
In that kingdom you'll find every sweet, tasty treat
waiting for you there
It's a magic place a lovely sight, pure delight if you go
you will want to stay
If you dare now, well go there, through the air now
today

The trees are hung with candy canes , bright red and white
With chocolate streets and licrice lanes: a love-ly sight Blue-ber-ry sky, lemon sun, fields of lime where we can run

There's a kingdom just beyond a star, not to far you can
go if you only dare
In that kingdom you'll find every sweet, tasty treat
waiting for you there
It's a magic place a lovely sight, pure delight if you go
you will want to stay
today
