One golden dawn
One summer night
With nothing left to say

We left the dream begin
It was carried on the wind
And it wandered away

One golden sky
One spark of light
Forever will remain

And the song of the storm
Brought us close
Kept us warm
All alone making love
In the rain

Gone is the world outside
Home on the turning tide
True love will find the sun
And know the reason why

You make me hunger for
You whispered mi amor
Over the ocean's roar
And the night will become
Our golden dawn

Two hearts as one
No tears to cry
With you I have it all

If love can never die
I'm not afraid to fly
But how far must I fall

One silver song
One lullaby
For all the love we make

It's the look in your eyes
It's the moon on the rise
It's the sound of the heart
That you break
Gone is the dark of night
Call on the early glow
Send down the birds of love
That circle us below

And still I will hunger for
You whispering mi amor
Over the ocean's roar
And your arms reach for me
And the shine on the sea
And the night will become
Our golden dawn...
