You look at me so differently.
Have I changed so much from
Who I used to be?

We're both too wise for alibies.
We talk but there's so much that
We don't say. I guess I've gotten
Use to it this way.

Chorus:
But in Niagra, you promised me the Moon and when I fell, I couldn't
Tell. It happened all too soon.
Up in Niagra, we were foolish then.
Make it happen again.

You hold my hand to please my friends
But when they leave, the music stops,
The love song ends. And even though
I'm reaching, it feels as though
There's nothing coming in. And maybe
This is how we've always been.

Chorus 2:
But in Niagra, you took me by surprise.
I knew you heard my every word just Looking in my eyes. Up in Niagra, we
Were crazy then. Make me crazy again.

Up in Niagra, we were crazy then. Make Me crazy again.
