Fanny & chorus

So long honey lamb I'll be seeing you time for us to part

I'll be twinkling

So long honey lamb I'll be keeping you right here in my heart

Watch me winckeling

Think of this as temporary

Just a toedeloe

Toeldeloe to you too

How much will I miss you

How much

Very

Let that see you through

But in the mean time

So long honey lamb we'll be close again

Baby don't cry

Someday we'll be nose to nose again

Someday bye and bye

In a world that has no winter were each month is june

So long honey lamb I'll be seeing you soon

I certainly know I'm gonna miss the old plantation

And the sound of banjo's thrumming on the summernights

I certainly know I hate my common situation

Because I'm on a cord and wings and I'm afraid from heights

I'm certainly gonna miss the taste of watermelon

And the fields I ran and the hills I hiked

All I'm gonna get to meet up here is angels

And to tell the truth I never met an angel my life

I certainly know I didn't trew a lucky seven

Though I'm hardly a complainer and a wooden carp

I wonder what the hell I'm gonna do in heaven

I could never plug a chicken and alone a harp

When you gotta go they tell you

Well you gotta go

When you gotta go they tell you

You gotta go

So faith my child has pluses and minuses

Golden dust is cleansing my sinuses

Rise above if that's what you gotta do
Look up I am ca ca I got news for you
So long honey lamb I'll be seeing you soon
Look for me in the moon
I'll be seeing you soon
