The tears I'm shedding now
I hear will dry in time
The fears I'm fearing now
I hear will die in time
But while I wait around for tomorrow
Watching life drift away
What about, yes what about, today?
I know if I just wait
The sun will shine someday
And when it does
The weather will be fine someday
But while the skies I search for tomorrow
Stay that same shade of grey
What about, yes what about, today?
'Till nirvana comes
What about today?
'Till Messiah comes
What about today?
'Till the mountains move
And oceans part
And angels sing
And life can start
What about, yes what about, today?
I can't help wondering
If tomorrow ever comes
And what's my life
Been lived for if it never comes
I've heard a lot of toasts to tomorrow

But non of them ever say
What about today?
What about today?
'Till nirvana comes
What about today?
'Till Messiah comes
What about today?
'Till the mountains move
And oceans part
And angels sing
And life can start
What about, yes what about, today?
I can't help wondering

If tomorrow ever comes
And what's my life
Been lived for if it never comes
I've heard a lot of toast to tomorrow
Non of them ever say
What about today?
What about today?
What about, yes what about, today???
