"Always With Me"

I'm the one who's at your door
Waiting for the perfect words
And I never thought that I'd be standing right here speechless
We've been through this all before
We keep coming back for more
And I can't believe how we always try but still miss

It's gonna take a little more than this to push me away
And I'm never giving up no matter what you say

So take some time
Find exactly where your heart lies
Whatever you need
Know that you're free
To go and take that ride
Can't you see
You're the reason that my heart bleeds
I need you to know
Wherever I go
That you're always with me

You hesitate when you come my way
Contemplating what you're gonna say
And I'm the one who's gonna always be here waiting

It's better knowing now just how you feel
I'd rather take the pain and know that this is real

So take some time
Find exactly where your heart lies
Whatever you need
Know that you're free
To go and take that ride
Can't you see
You're the reason that my heart bleeds
I need you to know
Wherever I go
That you're always with me

I can't make your mind for you

I need you to get away to Listen to your heart
And tell me what you need

So take some time
Find exactly where your heart lies
Whatever you need
Know that you're free
To go and take that ride
Can't you see
You're the reason that my heart bleeds
I need you to know
Wherever I go

Can't you see
You're the reason that my heart bleeds
I need you to know
Wherever I go
