Different town

You got me spinning round and round and round

Another time

You'll catch me falling down and down and down

God I've been so low

You picked me up when I fell into ...

You've got to help me breathe

Need someone to help me breathe

And if I found you're someone I know

You're all I know

I look around, you're everywhere I go

Still all alone

Think that I've gone numb

Without the chance to let you into ...

You've got to help me breathe

Need someone to help me breathe

'Cause you're so far and I regret

But I won't forget what's gone

I won't forget and I regret

'Cause you're so far and I regret

But I won't forget what's gone

I won't forget and I regret

Different town

You got me spinning round and round and round

Another time

You'll catch me falling down and down and down

God I've been so low

You picked me up when I fell into ...

You've got to help me breathe

Need someone to help me breathe

'Cause you're so far and I regret

But I won't forget what's gone

I won't forget and I regret

'Cause you're so far and I regret

But I won't forget what's gone

I won't forget and I regret

We used to tell them and we
Used to show them about the way it is
Now that there's only me
Left holding onto might-have-beens

We used to tell them and we
Used to show them about the way it is
Now that there's only me
Left holding onto might-have-beens

We used to tell them and we
Used to show them about the way it is
Now that there's only me
Left holding onto might-have-beens

God, I've been so low
You picked me up when I fell into ...

You've got to help me breathe
Need someone to help me breathe

'Cause you're so far and I regret
But I won't forget what's gone
I won't forget and I regret
'Cause you're so far and I regret
But I won't forget what's gone
I won't forget and I regret

You're so far, regret
You're so far, regret
You're so far, regret
You're so far, regret

'Cause you're so far and I regret
But I won't forget what's gone
I won't forget and I regret
And I regret ...
And I regret ...
Sometimes.
