Across a starry night I saw a satellite
And I followed it to you
Did you think I'd leave you here?
I put my hope in you
I tied a rope to the wind and it pulled me through again

And I know you're out there somewhere
Caught beneath the stars
And I know that you've been waiting all your life now

(Chorus)

I'm on my way to the world you know
My love is strong, I'll never let you go
You know I will be there
Miles away from the life we knew
I'll never stop 'till I'm standing here with you
So take the weight off your mind
You know I will find you, I won't leave you behind

My eyes have seen this place
I will not turn to trace the way home
When you're out there all alone
When the world is quiet, the only sound I hear
Is the crashing of the night
Still I won't turn away

And I know you're out there somewhere
Caught beneath the stars
And I know that you've been waiting all your life now

(Chorus)

I'm on my way to the world you know
My love is strong, I'll never let you go
You know I will be there
Miles away from the life we knew
I'll never stop 'till I'm standing here with you
So take the weight off your mind
You know I will find you, I won't leave you behind

I won't leave you
Under the stars

I won't let you down
Don't let your worries way you down
Cause I'm on my way to the world you know
I'll never let you go
And I know you're out there somewhere
Caught beneath the stars
You know I will find you, I won't leave you behind
