I never know what's coming when I say hi
You got two sides of you like Jacqueline Hyde
Night and day
You're so high maintenance but I always stay
Until you call me names

Call me anything you want
Just don't call me crazy
Call me anything
I'll take a chance on you

Whoa

This the way that we operate
In time I'll see straight through you
This is the way that we operate, yea
I'll take a chance on you
You take a chance on me

We got a good thing going
Don't you agree?
So cancel yourself out with positive negativity
I'll take you over my self confidence, yea
We won't be perfect
But come on who is?
Whoa

Call me anything you want
Just don't call me crazy
Call me anything
I'll take a chance on you

Whoa

This the way that we operate
In time I'll see straight through you
This is the way that we operate
I'll take a chance on you
You take a chance on me

Oh oh oh oh...

This the way that we operate
In time I'll see straight through Â– you
This is the way that we operate, yea
I'll take a chance on you
You take a chance on me

I never know what's coming when I say hi
You got two sides of you like Jacqueline Hyde
Night and day
You're so high maintenance
You never give in, yea
It feels like you're always mad at me for being your friend

Call me anything you want
Call me anything you want
Call me anything you want
Don't call me crazy
