Your soul is just a vessel
Floating empty down a street
Your heart is just an organ
Nothing profound about it

So do what you think
We'll make you fail
As close to a human as people like you could be

Lily, you're the best
You showed me what a waste I've made
Of most everything
And honestly, I'd like to say that
The way you move, it makes me sick
What an awful mess you've made

You're the one
That burned my castle down
You gotta go right now
And you're not sorry

I was faced with opportunity
You gotta go right now
You gotta get away from me

Could I strap you to a street sign?
And stretch you till your skin grows cold
Till your bones explode
Cause you need it now

I'm not one to think like this
I'm usually not aware of myself
Or the things I say

So do what you think
We'll make you fail
As close to a human as people like you canÂ...

You're the one
That burned my castle down
You gotta go right now
And you're not sorry

I was faced with opportunity
You gotta go right now
You gotta get away from me

Pariah

Pariah

Pariah
Pariah
Pariah!

Your soul is just a vessel
Your heart is just an organ

Wanna strap you to a street sign
Nail you to the street
Well this is what you wanted
Baby, wanted, baby

You're the one

Yeaaaaaaa

I was faced with opportunity

Cause you're not sorry
