Now that all the snow has fallen
It's crunching below my feet
And all the Christmas lights are shining
On houses up and down my street
And I can see the happy families inside
If only for a moment

It's Christmas time
I think I see the children down the street
Here they come caroling
Now I can hear them, they sing
Ohh yeah

Mr. Johnson got a Christmas tree
He set it up with his family
They're opening their presents big and small
Mr. Johnson got a big, brown, bowling ball
Sally got a pair of brand new skates
And Jimmy got a box of frosty flakes
He knows that there's a special little prize inside
What a happy moment

It's Christmas time
The carolers are standing in line
They sing
Ohh yeah
Oh yeah
