It's been a long time since I changed my shoes
I walk around all night and scream your blues
You said oh baby throw those things in the trash
Come on now mama I'm just trying to see how long they'll last

You got embarrassed cause I spilled on my pants
I was confused I said what's wrong with that You said I smelled like grease and mashed potato
I was just thinking ahead I'm saving it all for later

(Later you're so sick
I think it's time you took a shower
You know I spend a lot of time looking good for you
don't you)
Don't you like my style (no I don't)
Don't you like my style (you're sloppy and you're fat)
I've been living in this world for awhile (quit playing)
Don't you like my style

(No I don't, I don't like your style
No I don't, I don't like your style)

You started laughing cause my hat's too small
Said I'm too lazy but you're over it all
You are now looking out for some one more high class
But your attitude changed real quick
When I turned and smacked you on your ass

(Later you're so sick
I think it's time you took a shower
You know I spend a lot of time looking good for you
don't you)
Don't you like my style (no I don't)
Don't you like my style (you're sloppy and you're fat)
I've been living in this world for awhile
Don't you like my style
Don't you like my style (nope)
Don't you like my style (quit playing)
I've been living in this world for awhile
Don't you like my style

(I don't, I don't like your style
No I don't, I don't like your style
No I don't, I don't like your style
No I don't, I don't like your style)
