No matter where I roam
I will return to my english rose
For no bombs can ever keep me from she

Sailed the seven seas
I've flown the whole blue sky
But I return with haste
To where my love does lie
No matter where I go
I will come back to my english rose
For no bombs can ever keep me from she

I've searched the secret mists
Climbed the highest peaks
Caught the whirlwind home
To hear a sob boy speak
No matter where I roam
I will return to my english rose
For no bombs can ever keep me from she

I've been to ancient worlds
Scoured the whole universe
Caught the first train home
To be out of sight
No matter where I roam
I will return to my english rose
For no bombs can ever keep me from she
