Lord knows I'm a killer
Lord knows I'm a killer
Lord knows I'm a killer
Lord knows
Lord knows, lord knows
Lord knows, lord knows

Nine years have past since we started time together spending
Another ten is what we would pretend
So much time was spent fifteen men mending
But we always knew that there would have to be an end

Lord knows I'm a killer
Lord knows I'm a killer
Lord knows I'm a killer
Lord knows
Lord knows, lord knows
Lord knows, lord, lord knows

And so are time is over
My reasons I will no longer defend I'm not worrying about the where and why for I am living in the now
I always knew that there would have to be an end

Lord knows I'm a killer
Lord knows I'm a killer
Lord knows, lord, lord knows

And so our time is over
Yeah
