Where you gonna go when you get so high
You laugh about it
Laughing at my shoes they're red as your eyes
But we laughed about it
Wandering through the bushes of a girl who's trapped inside
Never even pledged from the eggs that shattered in my eye
Following my footsteps I know they get me home
Vomiting the cornbread that set my mind all wrong
Don't need you

Couple of things that got me down
We laughed about it
Drove my van right to the ground
But we laughed about it
Never even bothered to look at what was right in front of me
Caught a glimpse of the sparks that made us bleed
Following the forces that would set me back a few
Woke up in the morning affected by the booze
Don't need you

Don't need you
Don't want no lifeless wandering
Don't need no you've learned your lesson
Don't want no lifeless wandering
Don't need no you've learned your lesson

Where you gonna go when you get so high
Laughing at my shoes they're red as your eyes

Don't need you

OK this next song is called hippies fuck
Heh, just kidding
