Fading pages from the scrapbook
Of the many hands of time time time time
Memories of a million years
You spill into my mind mind mind mind

Lady of the seventh sky
You greet me then you're gone
Carrying all you secrets
But your voice still lingers on
See me oh can't you see who I am?
See me oh can't you see who I am?

Lady your face is hidden from my sight
Memory has cast its shadow
Shadow on your light

Lady of the seventh sky
You greet me then you're gone
Carrying all you secrets
But your voice still lingers on

Oracle of the mystery
Of the changing face of time time time time time
Echoing through the centuries
Your clear voice fills my mind mind mind mind

Lady of the seventh sky
You greet me then you're gone
Carrying all you secrets
But your voice still lingers on
Hear me oh can't you hear what I say?
Hear me oh can't you hear what I say?

Listening I hear your voice ringing out through time
You are me when I'm alive your love your love is mine
Lady of the seventh sky
You greet me then you're gone
Carrying all you secrets
But your voice still lingers on
