they might be sisters Barlow's their last name ordinary girls they don't live in the fast lane they dont mate with the guys that score cause they dont want what the guys want more they dont date, they dont date they wanna see how theyre gonna grow up who their gonna be but in the mean time, they might feel unloved when all the girls will love the guys that they love but i know for sure, its never popular to be pure although some guys might be passin' them by I think they caught someone's eye

(chorus)
all the boys in the band want a valentine from a barlowgirl boys think theyre the bomb cause they remind them of their mom ~repeat chorus

everyone needs to be loved everyone needs their own teenage fanclub any attention could feel like a good thing dressed to impress could be oh so tempting you can get noticed with your body sexual hypnosis by being hottie you might feel like a big property you might, you might you shouldn't be no girl should feel she has to trade her body for love or be an old maid there are guys who are willing to wait ask a barlowgirl on her wedding day

Chorus repeat
