"Complete Consumption Of Us Both"

Visit "Complete Consumption Of Us Both" on MotoLyrics.com

There was an idea to describe in all detail but maybe the huge pain juggernaut overwhelmed me There is no room for a single word unrelated lest to betray the situation which is that of absolute seriously complete whole consumption of us both I'm sure us both I guess, as per the situation I can only, if ever, in fairness speak for myself again I gave up my eligibility to ever speak on your behalf until someday that, I don't know if it will ever happen, (oh my god)
Sadness worse than the loss of a loved one's life versus the impending loss of love Is it quantifiable?
Is one worse?
Can I really remember?
I think I try to block out and forget experiences so I forget
